

EVERYDAY faves fun

Food Flash Cards

Little ones will love learning healthy eating habits (without even knowing it!) thanks to colorful Boddler Bites Cards. Each one features an easy, toddler-friendly recipe. $20 boddlerbites.com

Animal Greeting Card

Give a silly Monkey as Sock card for any occasion worth celebrating, or just because! $5 whigby.com

Everyone knows that I'm a big fan of sock monkeys! So when I saw these monkey cards, I instantly fell in love.

Kids' Water Bottle

The recycled Mini Bobble has a clean advantage over other bottles: Its screw-on cap filters out impurities as your child drinks! $9 waterbobble.com

Bring a set to the supermarket so your kids can learn about foods as you're putting them in the cart!

Remote Control Pillow

Cozy up to your remote—no, really! This pillow remote channel-surfs, then shuts off when idle so you can rest your head. $35 brookstone.com

Takeout Lamp

Chinese-food lovers will take a shine to this carryout-container lamp. Just don't try to eat from it! $19 pearlriver.com

Apple Air Purifier

Breathe easy: This desktop air purifier plugs into your computer's USB drive and clears the air of dust and odors. $22 usb.brandoo.com

Silicone Watch

Even if you didn't have slap bracelets back in the day, a slap-on Broadway Collection watch will make you feel like a kid again. $23 rumbatime.com

Lunch Container Set

Pic 'N' Mix Monsters compartments are labeled for veggies, fruits and main dishes, and marked measurements mean portion control is a cinch. $15 buildhealthykids.com

Kids will understand the food pyramid while filling the monster's tummy with a healthful, well-balanced lunch!

Dark Chocolate Matzo

Don't save this treat for Passover—like you'd be able to resist dark chocolate-and-toffee-covered matzo sprinkled with sea salt, anyway. $9 for 2 matzeltoff.com
